

SLOVAK UKRAINE COOPERATION, VOLUME 1

UKRAINE OPEN FOR INVESTORS: THINGS TO KNOW

DATE/TIME: 18.2.2025/10AM (CET)

Join our webinar, co-organized by boutique law firm Ments (Slovakia) and full-service law firm INTEGRITES (Ukraine), designed to foster investment opportunities in the current economic climate in Ukraine. The event will focus on sectors with high growth potential, offering participants valuable insights into emerging opportunities and practical guidance for navigating the Ukrainian market. This webinar provides a unique platform to explore strategic prospects and gain a deeper understanding of the legal and economic landscape.

MODERATORS FROM MENTS:

Peter Makýš, Partner

Lukáš Michálik, Partner

SPEAKERS FROM INTEGRITES:

Ilyia Tkachuk, Senior Partner, Head of Corporate and M&A

- Exploring investment opportunities in the current and post-war economic landscape
- Highlighting legal frameworks, incentives, and challenges for foreign investors

Igor Krasovski, Partner, Banking and Finance

- Attracting financing for projects in Ukraine
- War risk insurance, investment guarantees, other credit enhancement instruments for investors and lenders
- Case study - flagship finance deals in 2024

Anna Pogrebna, Partner, Real Estate, Construction and Infrastructure

- Key industries with high growth potential in Ukraine
- Current rebuilding opportunities
- Tips for successful participation in public tenders

Q&A session

BRIEFLY ABOUT INTEGRITES

Founded in 2005, INTEGRITES is a full-service law firm with head office in Ukraine and contact offices in Germany and the UK. The firm is recommended for complex cross-border work, including transaction and investor support, complex dispute resolution, corporate, M&A and tax law matters. Involved in a diverse range of projects focused on the reconstruction of Ukraine, the team of INTEGRITES remains in Kyiv and continues serving clients during the full-scale war. Since 2022, Yurydychna Gazeta (Ukraine) names INTEGRITES among the top national players with the largest impact on the legal consulting market.