Eastern Slovakia's Business Potential

I find AmCham to be incredibly valuable in fostering a business community which is not driven solely by profit, but has at its core, a desire to continue building a democratic, independent, and vibrant economy in Slovakia.

I also greatly appreciate the efforts by AmCham in advocating the pillars of Rule of Law, Capital of Talent, Innovation Capital and Regional Capital.

AmCham and BSCF memberships offer personal contacts with other business leaders for exchange of experience and ideas.

AmCham and BSCF are orchestrating a lot of great initiatives – from improving our labour code via strengthening the education system to granting support for those who need it, annual blood donations and supporting Ukrainian refugees serve as good examples. So in a nutshell – creating a powerful business community and providing good advice is what I appreciate the most.

Holcim has been a happy member of AmCham from our beginning and we have always relied on their support and professional approach. AmCham helps us manage many challenges for our business, while building a solid network with whom we could collaborate. We highly appreciate that AmCham is very active in areas critical for the future of the BSCs (and therefore also for Slovakia's success) with a pragmatic mind-set and creates a partnership between companies & institutions across sectors. In addition, they address the importance of education and the right skills for success.
