

Karol is a specialist in international mobility and student employability in the higher education sector. He has extensive experience in leading University–Business cooperation initiatives, designing and delivering internship programmes, and managing education projects within the EU Erasmus+ programme.

As a social entrepreneur and passionate networker, Karol has built strong cross-sector partnerships. He is the Founder of the Workspace Europe Network, leading key student career development initiatives in Slovakia such as Stazista.sk - the national student career portal, Workspace Europe - a consortium of universities for international internships, and the Placement Slovakia programme - a career development programme for international students in Slovakia.

Karol also holds leadership roles in several international associations dedicated to business–academic cooperation, international student mobility and employability.

For the past two years, Karol has served as the Chair of the AmCham Business-Academic Cooperation Committee.
