How to improve the negative impact of Covid-19 on your company?

WEBINAR 7. 7.2020 0 9:00

Slovakia is getting back on its feet and most of the pandemic rules have been cancelled or relaxed. But the economy has been hit hard, with even the worst maybe still to come. So how do you improve this negative impact of the Covid-19 crisis on your company? How can you safeguard the financial flows to prevent your company from running out of liquidity?

On all these questions and many more, our experts and those from Tatra Banka have prepared the answer in this next webinar that we are offering for free to our clients and contacts.
